

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use important information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you plan to accomplish in two years?
- What do you think your life will be like in ten years?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk about future actions, plans and intentions.
- I can give my opinion.

Let's Explore!

Janet meets Farmani. She has a request. Is it about the extension?

* An "extension" is an additional period of time allowed for something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Farmani: Janet! A pleasure to meet you in person. How do you do?
- Janet: Very well, thank you, Mr. Farmani. The pleasure is mine.
- Farmani: Please have a seat, Janet. I am looking forward to discussing your proposal.
- Janet: Thank you. We are very excited with this partnership, Mr. Farmani. The way I see it, expanding into a new cultural market requires extensive research. We are going to obtain the same success in Latin America as we are used to achieving elsewhere.
- Farmani: Your agency has a reputation for its personalized service.
- Janet: True. The potential here is too great to lose through carelessness. While we will proceed immediately, we need to be thorough in our research. I would like to ask you for an extension on the proposal deadline.
- Farmani: How much of an extension do you need?
- Janet: I believe it'll be greatly advantageous if we can have until the end of this week. I reckon this is going to give us what we need to draw up a proposal you can't refuse.
- Farmani: A four-day extension then. I am confident in your reputation and know your competitive edge. Personally, I don't believe you would ask for an extension without excellent reason. I will reschedule a meeting for Friday.
- Janet: Thank you. I look forward to presenting you with the excellent results on Friday. Have a good day.
- Farmani: Good day to you too.

Let's Practice!

Janet and Farmani talk about what's going to happen on Friday.

Instructions: Select a word from the Word Bank to complete the sentences. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. I am _____ to discussing your proposal.
2. We are _____ the same success in Latin America as we are used to achieving elsewhere.
3. While we _____ immediately, we need to be thorough in our research.
4. _____ greatly helpful if we can have until the end of this week.
5. This is going to _____ us to _____ a great proposal.

Word Bank

- draw up
- looking forward
- allow
- it'll be
- will proceed
- going to obtain

Let's Practice!

What will Polygon draw up* for Farmani?

*To "draw up" something means to prepare a written document.

Instructions: Match the sentences on the right with their corresponding responses on the left.

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| 1. The way I see it, | a. give us what we need to draw up a proposal you can't refuse. |
| 2. To be honest, the potential | b. I don't believe you would ask without excellent reason. |
| 3. I believe this | c. in your reputation. |
| 4. I reckon this will | d. there is too great to lose. |
| 5. Personally, | e. will be very helpful. |
| 6. I am confident | f. expanding into a new market requires research. |

Extension Activity

Let's talk about the future!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of what you want your life in be like in 10 years.
- What kind of job do you think you will have?
- What kind of work experience will you have?
- Write down 10 sentences about your future. Use "will" and "be going to".
- Share your sentences with a partner. Ask your partner for their opinion on your future.
- Listen to your partner's sentences.
- Give your opinion about their future plans.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about a job I want to have.

☐ ☐

I write about my future plans and intentions.

☐ ☐

I give my opinion about my partner's future plans.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- partnership (noun): the state of working closely with another company e.g. We are very excited with this partnership, Mr. Farmani.
- extensive (adjective): large in amount e.g. This requires extensive research.
- personalized (adjective): refers to something that is designed or changed so that it is suitable for a particular company e.g. Your agency has a reputation for the personalized services it provides.
- advantageous (adjective): creating favorable conditions that increase the chances of success
e.g. It will be greatly advantageous if we can have until the end of the week.
- a competitive edge (expression): an advantage that a company has over its competitors
e.g. I know the competitive edge that your agency offers.
- to reschedule (verb): to change the time of a planned event
e.g. I will reschedule the meeting.

Learning Points

Language for Opinions

Remember that in the business world, it is common to give your opinion about things.

Review some of the ways in which you can ask and give opinions:

Giving Opinions

I believe ...
I reckon ...
As far as I know, ...
If you ask me, ...
Personally, ...
To my mind, ...
The way I see it, ...
To be honest / frank ...
I am confident that ...

Examples:

- I am confident that your reputation offers a competitive edge.
- As you know, we need to carry out some market research.
- Personally, I look forward to showing you our results.

Learning Points

Talking About Future Actions, Plans, and Intentions

Remember when we know about the future, the Present tense is used:

- The Present Simple is used for things that are arranged and scheduled.
- The Present Continuous is used for plans or arrangements.

When we don't know much about the future, will is used:

- to make predictions
- for voluntary actions, actions you "want" or "are willing" to do
- to make offers and promises

• "(be) going to" is used to talk about plans and intentions:

I'm going to draw up something they can't refuse.

It is important to remember that both "will" and "be going to" refer to a specific time in the future. The chart below summarizes the two structures.

Be going to [subject + be going to + verb]	Will [subject + will + verb]
• to express a plan • to express a prediction	• to express a promise • to express a voluntary action • to express a prediction

Examples:

- I will reschedule our meeting for next week.
- We are going to obtain the same results.
- It will be a great opportunity for us.
- This will give us enough time to finish the project.

